

Indian Creek Newsletter

September 2000 Edition Vicky Hogan 728-2863

My Plea....I need some feedback! I have been doing the newsletter since June 1999 and have always had plenty of information to print in a monthly format. However, these past few months, things have slowed down and I am not getting much input in regard to articles for the newsletters. Is interest waning? Do I print a newsletter too often? Do I need to seek a different format? I need your opinions! I don't want to bore anyone with a monthly newsletter. I want it to be something you contribute and enjoy reading. I want it informative and appreciated. Drop your opinions off in my paper box at Box 254, 3 Fox Creek Road before September 20 so I will know what to do with creating an October newsletter!

CREATIVE MEMORIES!

Have you organized your life for the new millennium? It is not too late to live up to that New Year's resolution! Go to Carol Gleason's Creative Memories workshop on September 30 from 10:00-1:00 or 1:00-4:00 in her home right here in Indian Creek to see how to organize your family's photos and history. This is a very important part of your life and a small investment to make to preserve your family memories. New products! New ideas! And Fun! Fun! Fun! If those times do not work for you, you can come and go whenever it fits your schedule. Please R.S.V.P. to Carol at 728-2025 soon!

Annual Fall Garage Sales

The Fall Garage Sales will be held September 8th and 9th. Any resident who signed up for the sales will be listed elsewhere in this newsletter. Please make this year's sales a success! Stop by and look over the items your neighbors may be trying to sell. That one special item you hoped you'd one day find may be right there! A Bake Sale will be held at the Hogans, 3 Fox Creek Road, Box 254, and profits will go to the Route 66 Historic Walkway project. You can bring baked goods by through noon on September 7th, all day the 8th, or stop in anytime during the sale for dessert or a snack! (I will be open for business all day the 8th and possibly just until noon on the 9th.) Your money spent will help beautify our community! Thank you!

News from the Towanda Library

The library announces a new collection of books and audiocassettes for adults who are learning to read. In March of this year we received a $1,000 grant from the Secretary of State to purchase materials for adults who are learning to read. The collection will be ready for checkout on September 1, 2000.

Types of materials include audio book/book read-along sets, comic books, graphic novels (heavily illustrated stories), paperbacks, test preparation and grammar books.

If you are a beginning or advanced adult new reader or know of someone who is learning to read, please come in and check these out--these materials are here for you! We have some very exciting material to help you become a fluent reader!

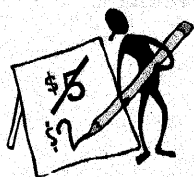

Puppets and puppet theater: Once again, thanks to the generous donations to the Emerson Guth Memorial, we have purchased several brand new puppets and a beautiful wooden puppet theater for the children's section. Children may use these when they come into the library. Just ask for the puppets at the desk.

Story Time: Wednesday morning story time will begin on Wednesday, September 6th at the usual time of 10:00 a.m. All preschoolers and their parents are invited to attend. Shirley Porter, library assistant, will present these sessions which often include a craft at the end of each program.

Tuesday evening story time will take place from 7:00 - 7:45 p.m. each Tuesday in September and will be presented by the library director, Mary Williams. We offer these for preschoolers and their parents who aren't able to attend the morning sessions. All are welcome to attend.

Book Sale: The Library will hold another book sale on Saturday, September 9th from 9:00 - 1:00 p.m. during the Towanda area Garage Sales. We will accept donations at the library during the week of September 5-8 before the sale. Please remember! We accept books in good condition, but cannot accept textbooks, Reader's Digest Condensed Books or magazines. Thanks for your donations!

Songs For Seniors: Mary Williams will perform songs for seniors at the Senior Citizens meeting on Wednesday, September 13th at 12:30 p.m. at the Community Building in Towanda. She will play songs on the autoharp and is hoping for a great sing-along with the audience!
