TOWANDA LIBRARY NEWS

Mary Williams, library director, will be offering "Beginning Internet Searching" on November 6th from 7:00-8:00 p.m. Towanda District Library adults are invited to attend this session, and those who attended the October 9th session are encouraged to attend as well. They would appreciate a call at the library at 728-2176 if you are interested in attending.

The library has received some children's video donations from members of the community but are still welcoming more. If you have children's videos that you no longer use that are in good condition, will you consider donating them to the library? They appreciate your donations to help enlarge their collection.

Wednesday morning story time with Shirley Porter has went very well. Children found their own nametags each session and enjoyed listening to stories and songs and creating crafts. The fall session has ended, however, the winter session will begin Nov. 14 and will run for eight weeks. Story time for 18 mos.-3 year olds will be from 10:45-11:15a.m. Story time for 3-5 year olds will be from 11:00-11:30a.m. The dates for the winter session are: Nov. 14, 21, 28, Dec. 5, 12, 19, Jan. 2 and 9. Children are not obligated to attend every Wednesday and their guests are welcome if they are in the same age group. Please register your child(ren) before the program begins. Call the library or stop by at 301 S. Taylor Street.

November 15th is Family Reading Night! Set aside all tasks and read to your children on that evening. This night is sponsored by the Illinois State Library. The library has growth charts, stickers and bookmarks you may pick up free of charge! (Compliments of Illinois State Library & State Librarian Jesse White.)

A decorative border of various autumn leaves in shades of brown, tan, and grey surrounds the text. The leaves are scattered along the top, bottom, and sides of the page.

The Towanda District Library is pleased to announce the addition of two new members to the library board. Mary Ann Boyd and Mark Schwamberger were voted in at the last board meeting. They will both serve the remainder of two four-year terms that were recently vacated. The Library looks forward to working with them!

HOMES FOR SALE IN INDIAN CREEK

A Big Thank You!

On a Saturday not long after the September 11 terrorist attack, a group of volunteers, organized by Fast Stop's Manager, Shannon Kocar, went door-to-door in Towanda, Lamplighter, and Indian Creek collecting donations for the Red Cross' September 11 Fund.

A huge thank you goes out to all those who graciously gave during this effort.

A special thank you to the ones who volunteered to collect these funds:

*Christy Hawkins *Jennifer Collins *Laura Egbers *Sandy Stoecker

*DJ Kocar *Chasney Rickert *Matt Stoecker

An astounding $700 was raised during this effort.

"Thank you very much! It was a wonderful effort by one and all and the money will be spent to aid the Red Cross' efforts to assist in the 9-11 disaster."

Shannon Kocar

Manager, Fast Stop-Towanda

May you and your loved ones celebrate this Thanksgiving 2001 remembering the reasons each of us has to be thankful and praying no more Americans have to suffer from terrorism. So, as 91% of all Americans sit at their Thanksgiving table and eat turkey, while knowing 45 million of the 300 million turkeys raised annually are consumed on Thanksgiving, give a moment of silence for those Americans that are unable to share the meal with their loved ones.
